Death of Mr. Clark.

Ex-Alderman Thomas W. Clark died at his residence on south Fayette street, between King and Prince, at 11 o'clock a sufferer from organic disease for some time, and for several weeks had been confined to his home. He was seven y-two years old, and he leaves a widow and two daughters. Mr Clark was a printer by trade, and in early life was employed upon the old Virginia Sentinel, published in this city by the Smith brothers in the ante bellum days. He was in later years an attache of the government printing office in Washing-He also worked at times upon sev eral Washington newspapers. Mr. Clark was elected a member of the Board of Aldermen from the Third ward in 1899, a position he retained until 1904. During recent years he had worked in Alexandria printing offices, at one time being employed on the Gazette. He was cordial in his relations with his fellowmen, and enjoyed a large circle of friends and acquaintances, all of whom will regret to learn of his decease. The deceased was a native of Winchester quier county, on Sunday night, took place this afternoon from dence of his son-in-law, Mr. A. W. Underwood, on Prince street. The services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Stump, and the pallbearers were ex-Confederate soldiers of this city selected by R. E. Lee Camp. The interment was made in Bethel cemetery.

As was stated in yesterday's Gazette, the deceased was a gallant soldier of the Army of Northern Virginia during the civil war, he having been first lieutenant in Company K of the Eighth Virginia Infantry. He was shot in the leg in Pickett's famons charge at Gettysburg and fell near other Confederates who had received mortal wounds. Lieutenant Herrington dragged himself near two dead comrades and procuring their guns improvised crutches upon which he hobbled from the field and almost into the Confederate lines when a bullet entered the other leg.

Confederate Veterans.

R. E. Lee Camp, Confederate Veterans, he'd their regular monthly meeting their hall last night, Lieut. Com. W. H. May presiding. The committees appointed to prepare resolutions on the death of Comrades J. Stanley Neale and W. J. Summers made their reports, copies of which were ordered to be spread upon the minutes, and sent to the families of the deceased. A resolution of thanks from the Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution for courtesies extended, was received The adjutant was direct ed to acknowledge the receipt from the War Department of 128 volumes of the The committees on the observance of Gen Lee's birthday made their report and were discharged.

Proposed New Bridge.

Mr. Mudd, of Maryland, introduced in the House of Representatives yesterday a bill calling for an appropriation of $100,000 for the erection of a brilge across the eastern branch of the Poto mac river. The bridge rill be built under the direction of the Commissioners of the District of Columbia, and under the provisions of the bill would extend from Half street southwest, Washington, to the new made land in the eastern extend to the original southern bank of but technical offenses are openly hinted

Another Fall in Temperature.

The snow fall yesterday morning was tollowed by colder and clearing confollowed by colder and clearing cou-ditions later in the day, and early in the night the heavens became clear when a crisp northwest wind set in. The tem-perature fell rapidly and at 7 o'clock perature fell rapidly and at 7 o'clock this morning the mercury stood at 13*. The river froze from shore to shore during the night, the ice being about an inch thick. The Norfolk steamer, which arrived up at an early hour, reported having encountered the ice in the vicinity of Indian Head.

Hunter Indicted.

Auxiliary, St. Pauls Church. Appointment Held Up.

When the appointment of Julian P. Baldwin, superintendent of schools of Alexandria county, comes up for ratification in the State Senate, a fight will donbtless be mad upon the incumbent, as it is charged in certain circles that he is a republican. No one assert that Supt. Baldwin has done snything wrong, superintendent admits that he was once a republican, but asserts that he has more recently been a consistent demociat. Senator Machen says a committee and it is sa d there that it will not be confirmed. It is claimed that he opposed the democratic ticket in the last election.

Baptist Church.

The meetings at the First Baptist Church have become so very interesting that they have taken hold of every class and conditionin our ity. The great crowd which attended the meetings on last Sunday was present again last night, and, after all the standing room, both in the gallery and on the lower floor, was occupied, many were turned away. methods adopted by by those conducting the meeting, are simple and direct. There is an entire absence of anything like high pressure. The religious enthusiasm among the people is steadily growing and many have professed faith in Christ. The pastor baptized twenty or thirty last night at the conclusion of the service.

Little Girl Burned.

A three-year-old daughter of Mr William Mason, living on Fayette street, between Queen and Princess, was seri-ously burned about half-past eleven this morning. The mother of the child had gone to a near-by store, and upon her return found the house full of smoke and the little girl terribly burned. One of the family started after a physician, while smoke was still pouring from the ouse, which caused an alarm of fire to unded, but the flames had been ex-

Date Mark a Bagdad Malady.

Bagdad date mark is the name given to a mysterious disease that attacks nearly every one who stays in Bagdad for any length of time and is found Turkish Asia. It is a sore that comes only once, but lasts a year, leaving a scar the shape of a date. Nearly all the natives are marked with it. No remedy has been found for it, but hyposulphite of soda seems to have some effect on the mark.
